PURPOSE AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CROP USE:

Kelpak Liquid Seaweed Concentrate (Kelpak) supplies soluble potash (K_2O) to plants and can be applied to transplant seedling tray, to transplant water or as foliar applications to plants. Please refer to the Kelpak Application Guide for specific crop recommendations.

Kelpak can be applied as a soil drench, through fertigation and foliarly with nutrients. Kelpak can be included in most starter fertilizer formulations applied at crop planting.

Kelpak is applied in conjunction with standard fertilizer programs. Consult the local distributor for fertigation applications (do not dilute more than 1 gal in 500 gal water).
